Dresser Volunteers Needed for ArtWear Fashion Show!

About the 2019 ArtWear Event:
ArtWear is the annual juried exhibition of the graduating senior student work in the Fashion Design program at UNT. Each year some 30-40 students compete to have their best creations come down the runway and make their debut into the fashion industry.

As a volunteer for the show, lunch will be provided.

Lunch will be provided.
Volunteer Information

Please arrive promptly at your designated time below to The Union: Ballroom 314 (1155 Union Circle, Denton, TX 76203) wearing all black clothing.

Everyone must check in upon arriving on the day of the show to receive your color ID badge. Wear your ID badge at all times because it is your access to the fashion show and backstage areas. Please understand that backstage areas are for authorized personnel only. Do not bring family or friends backstage.

Please note that a light lunch will be provided on the way of the show. There will also most likely be a lot of down time. Once complete with your duties and responsibilities, we ask that you bring study materials to prepare for your exams, or something to work on between task, as you will not be permitted to leave.

Saturday, May 4th: Day Backstage Set-Up: 9:30am- 6pm

Please arrive promptly at 9:30am on Saturday, May 4th to The Union: Union Ballroom 314 to check in wearing all black clothing. You will be responsible for making sure that setup is going as planned. You will also be responsible for checking in with Alaena Reed and the merchandise team.
