Project Goodwill 2018
Think your clothing designs have what it takes to “rip the runway”? Let us be the judge! With a budget of $100, step up to the challenge to design a wearable, fashionable, “Blue Carpet” garment using unconventional materials from Goodwill stores. Your look will be modeled at a runway show/dinner event to support Goodwill Fort Worth’s programs and services!

Contestant Requirements:

-Aged 16 and up (16 and 17-year-olds must have parents permission)

-Mature and upbeat attitude

-Ability to meet deadlines

-Some design training, background or previous design competition experience

-Access to equipment needed to create your look

-Independent transportation

-Access to email and smartphone for communication

-Ability to provide your own model for your look

-Availability for all pertinent dates
Designers are allotted a $100 stipend to select and purchase materials from Goodwill FW locations. All designers are given the same amount of time to construct their garment. Once the design deadline is reached, the designers must dress their models, send them off to hair and make-up, and then to the runway. A panel of judges will score each look in several categories and provide personal annotations and comments regarding the presented designs. The winning designs are then announced, based on their scores and other considerations.
